Athlete Eligibility:

General eligibility conditions for track cyclists include a minimum age requirement and licence/registration requirement: a valid UCI International Racing Licence from their recognised UCI National Cycling Federation.

General eligibility conditions for Para track cyclists include:

- A 'confirmed' sport class status; or
- A 'review' sport class status with a fixed review date of 2019

To be eligible for endorsement by a CGA, a pilot must satisfy applicable CGF, UCI and IPC eligibility standards. For the avoidance of doubt, in the case of any inconsistency, the CGF standards will prevail.

General eligibility conditions:

To be eligible for CGA endorsement, an athlete must comply with the following conditions:

- Not be currently under disqualification or suspension by the CGF, or their respective Affiliated CGA or IF or under the World Anti-Doping Code.
- Complied with all applicable rules and regulations of the CGF, IF and the World Anti-Doping Code as may be modified and applied by the Federation to ensure that the overriding principles of the Commonwealth Games are observed.
- Meet with the CGF's eligibility standards in accordance with the CGF Constitution.

Age requirements:

- For track cyclists, age eligibility is a minimum of 18 years on 31 December 2018. Born on or prior to 31/12/2000.
- For Para track cyclists, age eligibility is a minimum of 17 years on 31 December 2018. Born on or prior to 31/12/2001.

Permitted athletes per CGA:

The following sport-specific entry regulations have been determined for cycling and Para cycling events and are applicable to GC2018:

- Maximum 33 athletes across all events per CGA (excluding Para track cycling)
- Maximum 34 athletes across all events where a CGA enters women's team pursuit (excluding Para track cycling)
- Maximum three athletes per event men's/women's individual events (excl road race)
- Maximum one team of four per CGA in team pursuit (men and women)
- Maximum one team of three per CGA in team sprint (men)
- Maximum one team of two per CGA in team sprint (women)
- Para track cycling: maximum two men and two women per CGA, based on UCI world ranking and universality under specific circumstances
- One pilot for eligible events

CGF Eligibility:

Subject to Byelaw 17(2), as a condition of entry to compete in the Commonwealth Games, all competitors must be citizens or subjects of the Commonwealth country which enters them and must:

- Not be currently under disqualification or suspension by the Federation, or their respective Affiliated CGA or IF or under the World Anti-Doping Code.
- Comply with all applicable rules and regulations of the Federation, their respective IFs and the World Anti-Doping Code as may be modified and applied by the Federation to ensure that the overriding principles of the Commonwealth Games are observed.

Subject to Byelaw 17(3), where a competitor was born in a Commonwealth country which has common citizenship/passport with other Commonwealth countries, the competitor may initially represent either the competitor's Commonwealth country of birth; or the Commonwealth country of birth of his or her father or mother who shares the same citizenship/passport.

After having represented one Commonwealth country at the Commonwealth Games, a competitor may not represent another Commonwealth country unless he or she receives approval of the Federation, the relevant IF and Affiliated CGAs of the two Commonwealth countries concerned. Applications under this byelaw must be submitted to the Executive Board at least 12 months prior to the commencement of the Games.

It is the responsibility of all Affiliated CGAs to ensure that their competitors are fully aware of, and comply with, the eligibility rules of the Federation.

The Executive Board shall have the power to waive the provisions of Byelaw 17 (1-3) at its discretion.

Qualification pathways:

There are no qualification pathways for track cycling at GC2018. For Para track cycling: maximum two men and two women per CGA, based on UCI world ranking and universality under specific circumstances.
